

A strong European policy to support Small and Medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and entrepreneurs 2015-2020

Public consultation on the Small Business Act (SBA)

Fields marked with * are mandatory.

Introduction & background

Since its adoption in 2008, the Small Business Act (SBA) has proven its worth as a policy tool in support of the small and medium enterprises (SMEs). Various initiatives have been taken at both EU and national level to improve the environment in which these businesses operate and help them grow.

It is now time to reflect on what can be done in the years that lie ahead to make life easier for SMEs.

The Commission has drafted a consultation document including the on-going measures and the new proposals (see the link below).

This consultation is designed to collect feedback on the new initiatives set out in the consultation document.

Please read it before you complete the questionnaire.

Agri-businesses are also affected by the excessive administrative burden that is often imposed by national and EU authorities. Procedures are particularly burdensome, in the context of applying the provisions of the Common Agricultural Policy and the rules existing in the Common Market Organisation, for official checks and controls.

Agri-businesses could benefit by measures aiming to streamline controls among various entities and avoid duplication of controls (no data, fact or event should be checked twice).

Any relevant measure that could facilitate the collection and access to data among different public entities, could have a significant impact towards the reduction of administrative burden.

Awareness for possible access to finance across agri-businesses as well as across the financial institutions and relevant public authorities and organisations, is significantly lagging behind in comparison with enterprises in other sectors.

Financial instruments should ensure a level-playing-field for access to finance also in the agri-business sector, which is often confronted by lack of funding, due to the different criteria applied by financial institutions, compared to business activities in other sectors.

Therefore, additional provisions in the form of guarantees should accompany financial instruments aiming to facilitate access to finance for agri-businesses.

Better access to finance can be facilitated for agri-cooperatives as well as for cooperatives, in all sectors, by improving their visibility in relevant measures. This can be achieved through specific provisions that identify cooperatives as eligible recipients of funding, across all financial instruments and support measures.

Ensuring a level playing field across all different types and sizes of enterprise, is of fundamental importance for a more balanced functioning of the Internal Market.

Especially in dynamic sectors, agri-businesses as well as any other SMEs, are often confronted with significant barriers to entry. It is thus of critical importance to reduce such all such barriers, such as those related to access to information and intellectual property. Equally important is access to markets outside the EU borders for agri-businesses. It is therefore necessary to ensure that they are included in all specific actions and that special provisions are put in place, to facilitate their participation in targeted programmes.

Reinforce agri-businesses entrepreneurship through raising awareness on the possibility and advantages of adopting the cooperative model of enterprises.

Awareness of the specificities and advantages of the agri-cooperative business model should be enhanced in all stages of formal education as well in lifelong learning programmes.

Specific features such as cooperative governance and financial structures of cooperative enterprises should be included in the curricula of the educational institutions.

Erasmus for young entrepreneurs should have specific provisions to include tailor made programs adapted to the needs of agri-businesses.
