

Philippe Adriaenssens

Philippe Adriaenssens (40) is Policy Director at the European Round Table for Industry (ERT), where he is responsible for single market, energy policy as well as finance & tax.

Philippe spearheaded ERT's work on Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) for benchmarking industrial competitiveness in global comparison. He's also been the driving force behind the publication: 'Renewing the Dynamic of European Integration' as well as ERT's Technical Study and Compendium of 100+ Single Market obstacles.

Philippe worked previously in the Belgian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and various consulting firms. He graduated from College of Europe in Bruges.