

Market Surveillance programme 2014 - 2015

Finland	Recreational Craft Directive 94/25/EY, as amended by 2003/44/EY
Authority	Finnish Transport Safety Agency P.O.Box 320, FI-00101 Helsinki www.trafi.fi Puh. 029 534 6500 boating@trafi.fi
Surveillance	Surveillance is risk based and divided to reactive and proactive. Reactive surveillance is based on notifications or requests from other authorities. Proactive surveillance is carried out in the premises of economic operator or at the trade shows. Participating in the international standardization in the field of RCD.
Communication	Continuous informing in the internet of possible dangerous products. Information bulletins (press releases) about notable findings after the main trade shows. Information bulletins (press releases) about the results of market surveillance activities . Informing the interest groups.
Development	Amendment of the Directive -> development of local legislation. Research within the field. Development of practices processes and tools.
Training	Market surveillance training for new personnel. Advanced training for market surveillance personnel. Training of interest groups.
Other	Cooperation with customs authority. Cooperation with other European market surveillance authorities (RCD ADCO)