

NEW RULES ON VEHICLE SAFETY AND AUTOMATED MOBILITY

5 JULY 2024

Thanks to the EU General Safety Regulation, vehicles now sold in the EU have to be equipped with a series of new safety features to assist the driver and help better protect passengers, pedestrians and cyclists across the EU.

NEW SAFETY FEATURES IN YOUR CAR

FOR ALL ROAD VEHICLES

FOR CARS AND VANS

FOR BUSES AND TRUCKS

New Safety Features required in all new cars from 7 July 2024

 these measures apply to all new vehicle types since 6 July 2022*

- Intelligent speed assistance
- Reversing detection with camera or sensors
- Attention warning in case of driver drowsiness
- Emergency stop signal
- Cybersecurity measures

- Lane keeping assistance
- Advanced emergency braking detecting cars, pedestrians and bicycles
- Event data recorders

- Detection and warnings to prevent collisions with pedestrians or cyclists
- Tyre pressure monitoring systems.

Measures being progressively introduced between July 2024 to January 2029

For new vehicle types from July 2024
For new vehicles from July 2026

- Advanced driver distraction warning
- Safe and longer lasting tyre performance

- Safety glass

For all new vehicle types from January 2026
For all new vehicles from January 2029

- Improved direct vision to better see cyclists and pedestrians
- Event data recorders